THE WHEN

VISIT INDIANAPOLIS

OCT. 13th to 18th Fall Festival and Horse Show

The coming week again offers favorable opportunities to visit our city. All the railroads make greatly reduced roundtrip rates. The entertainment offered will be the most pretentious, and in many respects, the most novel, interesting and elaborate display primarily attempted in the State.

We extend a very cordial invitation to the Trade, our Patrons and Friends, in this and adjoining States, to visit us, with the assurance that, whether intent on business or pleasure, or a judicious combination of both, the occasion will be found most favorable.

vidual Points.

A husky delegation representing the University of Indianapolis will leave this morning at 8 o'clock for Cincinnati, where they will play their first game of the season with the team of the University of Cincinnati. The game is important in that it will afford opportunity for the Indianapolis supporters to form an estimate of the eleven which will uphold the university on the gridiron this fall. Victory means every-

the men in the different departments, who

to play unless the team makes a creditable showing. It also draws about the eleven

the hearty support that is dormant more or less in the departments because of their unconcentrated situation. This was shown last year when the team was given such a loyal support. The men on whom rest so much to-day are all football veterans of the husky, iron-muscled stamp, and they are determined to win if it is possible. Mr.

Kelly said last night that the team is playing better football at present than the team of a year ago put up at the same time last year. While the men are not such pro-

reports they are planning a warm reception

Wilson Stake of $2,000 for 2:20 Pacers Taken by Direct Hal-Other Events at Lexington.

LEXINGTON. Oct. 17 .- Favorites won the four events on to-day's card, but the oppo sition that each had made the sport exciting at all stages. Save in the last race the events were taken in straight heats. Special interest centered in the 2:02 pace Harold H. and Edith W. fought it out with Dan R. all the way in each heat, but he was good enough to land both. The time was 2:06 and 2:04. The 2:09 trot led to another game struggle between Monte Carlo, Belle, Kiser and Major Delmar, the latter winning. The time was within the class of the race in each heat. Direct Hal won the Wilson stake 2:20 class, and the fact that he had to cover the three miles in 2:09, 2:07 and 2:07% is proof of the character of the competition. The stake record is 2:06%, made by Audo-bon Boy last year. Dr. Straig had the hardest struggle of the day when he defeated Beldo in the 2:16 class trot. Attendance, 5,000; track fast. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Oct. 17 .- The University of Illinois football team will play its first important game of the season with the Purdue eleven here to-morrow afternoon. In anticipation of this contest the coaches have given the Illinois only light signal practice for the past few days, fearing to weaken the team by injuries.

The home eleven's supporters confidently expect it to win the game and their only subject of speculation is the size of the score. The "boilermakers" are supposed to have improved greatly since their defeat by Chicago, but they are not here regarded as the equals, either in defense or offense, of the players who will oppose them. Illinois's line-up will be as follows: Left end, Cook; tackle, Stahl; guard, Bundy; center, Wilson; right guard, Fairweather; tackle, Rothgeb; end, Beebe; quarter back, McKinley; left half, Pitts; right half, Bronson; full back, Parker.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. of a determined and snappy kind, The line-up will be as follows: Left end, Minchor White; tackle, McMames; guard, Riebel; center, Emies; right guard, Boyer; tackle, Davidson, end, Hohn; quarter back, Collar or Leslie; left half, Allen or Zimmerman; right half, Mills or Osborne; full back, Leslie or Kaylor.

a Hopeful Mood.

FRANKLIN, Ind., Oct. 17.-The Franklin College football team will leave to-morrow morning for Crawfordsville, where it will play Wabash College. Owing to the unfavorable circumstances under which the team has had to work, this season the players are not very sanguine of success. The team played a spirited game with the scrubs yesterday, but the new men have not learned to handle the ball and fumbles in the line-up. Bryan has changed from quarter to end, Waggoner being moved from right half to quarter. Branigan has been shifted from full to right half and Jewett, a former substitute. has been selected for full. The probable line-up will be as follows: Bryan; tackle, Silver; guard, Thompson; center, Roach; right guard, Pritchard, tackle, Tincher; end, Webb; quarter, Waggoner; left half, Miller; right half, Bran-

WABASH COLLEGE.

Clash of Freshmen and Sophomores Results in a Soph Victory. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., Oct. 17 .- The sensational feature of the week in local college circles was the clash of the freshmen and sophomores for the first time since the opening of the new year. The conflict was occasioned by the freshmen. No sooner was the last word of the chapel exercise pronounced than every freshman of the sixty produced a long cob pipe with the colors of the sophomores protruding from the bowl and with these they marched out on the campus, shouting defiance. The their lines quickly. There were charges features. The freshmen were deprived of their pipes. The victory was clearly with the sophs, who succeeded after thirty minutes in completely silencing their aggressive antagonists. The freshmen have the advantage in numbers, but they were poorly organized and without efficient leadership. The night previous to the scrap the freshmen hung a scarecrow elephant labeled '05 in one of the campus trees, but it was discovered by the sophs and removed before morning. The fraternities have reached an agreement on the "rushing" question, which is the first game by a margin of twelve hailed with delight by the college authori- pins ties, students and alumni. For some years such a thing has been talked of, but nothing has been accomplished until this fall, when President Kane took up the matter and urged some action on the part of the fraternities which would do away with the distraction which always comes at the opening of the fall term, when the frats make the rush for new members. Under the agreement "no mention shall be made until Nov. 1 of each year of any fraternity matter whatsoever, either direct or indirect, to any student of Wabash College who is not at that time either an active or pledged ning of the next college year. Clinton Marshall, of the junior class, one of the best football men Wabash has had in the last few years, is out of the game this year and is coaching the Crawfords-ville High School team. His men made a touchdown in a game with the Wabash varsity this week and held the latter to eleven points. He expects to have the best high school team in central Indiana. Chancellor Strong Installed. LAWRENCE, Kan., Oct. 17.-Frank Strong, former president of the Oregon State University, was to-day installed as member of some chapter, and no prospective student shall be pledged to any fraternity hall until the date mentioned. The agreement will go into effect at the begin-chancellor of the University of Kansas. The exercises were largely attended by the alumni and several noted educators were present. Arthur T. Hadley, president of Yale, was the leading speaker. Governor William E. Stanley spoke for the State, and Chancellor Strong following, outlined his policy. An innovation of the inaugural was a procession of the faculty 'i students from the main college building to the new museum building, where the exercises were held. The hall had been beautifully decorated by the different classes and societies of the college. There were 2,500 persons present. Hon. Thomas M. Potter, of Peabody, Kan., a member of the board of regents, presided.

Another Coup with Ethylene.

CHICAGO, Oct. 17 .- E. J. Arnold & Co. of St. Louis, put through another coup today at Worth. Their three-year-old filly Ethylene, which they backed from 8 to down to 4 to 1 in the fourth race at a mile, broke second, took a lead of a length at the quarter, increased it to five lengths in the stretch and won as she pleased from Sidney C. Love, with The Lady third, a length away. Ethylene equaled the track record of 1:39 4-5 for the mile and if driven out could have set a new mark for the course. Winners in order: Solon, 7 to 1 Gravina, 9 to 2; Fake, 7 to 1; Ethylene, 4 to 1; Toah, 1 to 2; Bessie McCarthy, 3 to 2.

Marie Bolton, at 100 to 1, Won.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 17.-Gaslighter, Our Lady, Schwalbe and Colonial Girl were the winning favorites at the fair grounds today. Handspinner's bad race to-day is under investigation by Judge Brady. Maria Bolton surprised the talent by winning the first race at odds of 100 to 1. Winners in order: Maria Bolton, 100 to 1; Gaslighter, 4 to 5; Our Lady, 6 to 5; Schwalbe, 4 to 5; Bas D'Or, 7 to 1; Colonial Girl, 6 to 5.

Bryson rolled 242 and counter charges, with many ludicrous | and Carter piled up 202, but the other three men did not do so well. The first division made a clean sweep of the three games, but the second division won only one. The All-Stars showed more improvement by dividing the six games with the Capital Citys. The first division won one of the games largely through the efforts of "Col." C. C. Perry, who scored 214 in the second contest. The second division won two. The Washingtons came near making a clean record with the Pastimes, and succeeded in winning five of the games. The second division of the Washingtons lost

The Nationals were easy for the Crescents, and the latter won five of the six. Keller's 212 score in the third game for the first division of the Nationals prevented the Crescents from making a clean sweep. The first division of the Turners and North Sides had an exciting series in which the North Sides won two. The second division of the Turners won two, making a 952 score in the third game, with the aid of three 200 scores by Field, Schmid and Shreve. The scores follow:

Six-Round Bout Fought by Art Sims and Otto Sieloff. MILWAUKEE, Oct. 17 .- Art Sims, of Akron, O., and Otto Sieloff, of Chicago, fought a six-round draw before the Milwaukee Boxing Club to-night. The men fought straight rules, and with the exception of the third round the bout was a hugging match all the way. In the third Sims floored Sieloff, who took seven of the count. Sieloff rushed Sims repeatedly, but most of the time was devoted to clinches. Jack Dogherty, of Milwaukee, knocked out Maurice Sayers, also of this city, in the first round, after two minutes and fifty seconds of rapid exchanges. New Cup Defender Ordered. BRISTOL, R. I., Oct. 17.-The order for the new cup defender in the races with S Thomas Lipton's Shamrock III has been placed with the Herreschoffs here, accord ing to a report from an authoritative source. Plans for the new craft were drawn up many weeks ago in anticipation of the challenge and orders were placed for constructional metal and other requisites, so that the builders are now practically ready to begin work as soon as the material has been assembled.

Two Billys Spar Six Rounds. PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 17.-Billy Maynard, of New York, and Billy Ryan, of Syracuse, sparred six rounds to-night at the Ariel Athletic Club. The result was a good go, with little or nothing to choose between them at the finish. Ryan's work was the more spectacular. Maynard's body blows, though, had force behind them, and in a finish affair would have been effective.

CHEERS FOR THE BOERS

BUT LITTLE RELIEF MONEY CON-TRIBUTED BY EUROPEANS.

Sorry They Did Not Visit the United States First.

BERLIN, Oct. 17 .- The Boer generals now here are sorry they did not go to America first for money, instead of making a canvass on the continent. General Botha said to-day that they intended, of course, to go to the United States, but as they had started to tour the continent they would finish their tour of Europe before undertaking the trip to America. The experience of the generals so far has been rather disappointing. There have been plenty of cheers, but little money has been contributed for the relief of the Boers. One American contributed more than all Ger-The Pan-German group, which is managing the generals, is doing everything possible to give the demonstrations an anti-British character, but the Boers have refused outright to do some of the things suggested. For instance, it was widely advertised that the generals would this morning lay a wreath at the foot of the statue of Emperor William I, hear the Schloss. Enormous crowds gathered there and their cheers were heard by his Majesty, who looked out of the window. But an hour passed beyond the time appointed and the generals did not come. Finally word was circulated that they would not come at all. As learned afterward, General Botha declined to take part in the affair, that seemed to him to have been a political quality. The popular explanation of the abandonment of the visit to the statue was that a hint was received from the police to the effect that it was undesirable. The visiting generals spent the morning in receiving callers. From time to time they showed themselves on the hotel balcony to crowds, and the latter always raised a cheer. General De Wet remarked: "Being a personality is tiresome. I had more pleasant time on my farm The generals, with Herr Liebermann von Sonnenberg, who, in the Reichstag, called Colonial Secretary Chamberlain "The est knave in Europe," drove to the Reichstag building and inspected Bismarck's statue outside, while several thousand of "shouted," one newspaper says, people "shouted," one newspaper says, "such cheers as have not been heard in Berlin since Kalser Wilhelm's triumphal entry in 1871." When they entered the gallery of the Reichstag the spectators in all the galleries stood up and the members or the house turned their backs on Herr Antrick, who was speaking, to stare at the generals. Count Posadowski, the home secretary, was the only person in the house who did not look up. He continued to quietly read a letter. Prince Herbert von Bismarck entertained the generals at luncheon in the Reichstag restaurant. The conversation was in English and turned on British public General Botha spoke in the warmest terms The only incident which disturbed the afternoon reception at the hotel where the generals are staying was caused by a German "free lance," who arrived here from prison in India to-day, asking General Botha to cash two Transvaal bills for $285. issued in 1900 and given to the man in payment for services. General Botha said: "I cannot do it, my boy; I am a beggar myself." Count Von Norman discounted the bills as curiosities. The Philharmonic House was filled to its utmost capacity for the Boer meeting to night. The sale of tickets realized $6,750 some persons paying as much as $250 for a Military uniforms were almost entirely lacking. Three young ladies presented laurel wreaths to the Boer generals. and Generals Delarey and Dewet kissed the girls who made the presentation.

Boone has been much in need of a sympathetic, accurate and popular biography. No one better adapted to the task could have been found than Mr. Thwaites, the author of the volume on Marquette in the same series, which has already met with a general welcome. Tragedy, heroism, self-sacrifice-these were the characteristics of this simple and that the British commander-in-chief replied at a late hour this evening that he had practically decided to accept the invitation in December of 1903, and that there was a possibility of his crossing in time to witness the international yacht races in that year. It is Earl Roberts's desire that Generals French and Kelly-Kenny accompany him. The American generals have been particularly anxious that Earl Roberts should visit America in order that they may have an opportunity of repaying the many courtesies he has shown them during their stay in England. Ambassador Choate gave an elaborate dinner at the Carlton Hotel to-night it honor of Generals Cortin, Young, and Merritt. Among those present were Earl Roberts, the Earl of Hardwick, the Earl of Errol, Lord Mount-Stephen, Lord Lawrence, Ambassadors White, Admira Seymour, General French, General Kelly-Kenny, Gen. Ian Hamilton, General Trotter and Colonel Clarke, as well as H. O. Arnold-Foster, M. P.; A. H. Lee, M. P.; Colonel Hunsicker, chairman of the Nickel Corporation; Sir Francis Jeune, judge ad-vocate general; Lieutenant Colonel Johnston and Lieutenants McKinley and Mc-Coy, U. S. A.; Commander Clover, Secretary Carter, Major Cassett and other members of the embassy staff. The dinner was a purely social function and a most enjoy-able affair. There were no speeches. Ambassador Choate proposed a single toast, "King Edward and President Rooseveit." General Corbin and General Young and their staffs will sail for home on the American-line steamer Philadelphia to-morrow General Wood will remain over here until November. He will visit in Scotland.

"The Ideal President."

Kansas City Star (Ind.) This indomitable display of honest pur-pose and this utter absence of fear in their President are a joy and a delight to the American people, and to their enthusiasm over these superb natural gifts of character they are able to add the high felicitation which they feel because of the pres-ence in the White House of a gentleman of learning, breeding and distinction and of those excellent antecedents which lit the President for the social duties of his place as well as for the high requirements of statesmanship which he meets with such complete satisfaction to the Nation.

A limited select party, utilizing only strictly first class traveling accommodaions, will leave in January for the Medi and depend more on the "strength in unity" system. Individually the men are displaying better spirit than ever before. For the past two weeks scarcely a man has been absent from practice, and they work with a vim and determination that is so beautiful to see on the gridiron. The team from Cincinnati was defeated last year by Center-Compton, who played the same osition on last year's team. Although he weighs only 160 pounds, he is quick on his feet and in passing the ball. He plays low and is rarely guilty of letting a man break Irwin, who plays right guard, is the heaviest man on the team. He weighs 203 bounds, but his flesh is hard and well dis-He hails from the "Medics." This is his first year on the team, although he has had experience on several high school elevens. up a better game this year. Carson, one of last year's veterans, is playing right tackle. Although guard is his position, he has been showing up so well at tackle that Coach Kelly has assigned him the place. He weighs 188 and is a giant in strength. Goodrick, another High School man, is in left tackle. His weight is 186. He is very fast and plays fierce and low. The ends light but almost sure tacklers and speedy on getting down on kicks. At full back will be Cook, who played on the old Butler team several years ago. He is a hard line bucker as well as a valuable man on the defensive.

The following substitutes will be taken Paulson, Kingsbury, Woods and Owens. Coach Kelly says that he believes his team will win, providing they play their game. He thinks, however, it will be a close

To-Day's Leading Football Games. Indianapolis vs. Cincinnati, at Cincinnati.

Another Song of Sorrow. LAFAYETTE, Ind., Oct. 17 .- With little hope of victory against their strong adversaries, Purdue's football eleven left tonight for Champaign, where the annual ternity before his arrival at Crawfordsgame with Illinois is to be played to-morrow. All this week the practice has been nevertheless the loss of John Milla and Krull and the poor physical condition of others on the team are a great handicap to success. Illinois expects to defeat Purdue with as large a score as did Chicago, but the Boilermakers will try to hold the Illinois down, Riebel, Leslie and Allen have been showing up better of late. Coach Best has tried several new formations and has tired out nearly every man on the squad of the 'Varsity team. He is con-fident that the present line-up is the strongest that can be developed from the material at hand. Early in the season the hope of this year lowering the colors of Chicago and Illinois was strong, but the Chicago game took the heart out of rooters and players alike. However, it is certain that a stronger defense and greater determination will be shown than against Chicago.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Oct. 17.-Indiana is making ample preparation to meet its old rival, De Pauw, here, on Jordan field, Saturday. From all reports it appears that the Methodists are looking forward to an easy victory. They seem to have inferred from the overwhelming defeat Indiana suffered at Michigan last Saturday that her team is much torn up and some of its men colt was an odds on favorite and won drivcospective candidates for the hospital. The falsity of this delusion will very likely be demonstrated to-morrow. The Michigan game meant vastly more to Indiana than the running over a few of its men At present the 'varsity team is in better shape for work than at any previous time this season, and it will endeavor to prove
